Valeria's Wedding Day

Last Saturday, my cousin Valeria wedded at St. Agnes Church. Relatives and friends came in big numbers to attend the wedding. The church service began at 2:00p.m and ended at 3:00p.m. Thereafter all the guests went to Kagga Gardens for the reception.

It was a very well organised place. There was a lot of food and drinks. Everybody was free to eat whatever he or she wanted. My mother ate irish potatoes, matooke and chicken.

I enjoyed eating traditional dishes so I served myself with matooke, millet bread, sweet potatoes, rice and beef. After getting food, I picked a bottle of soda. My mother picked a bottle of mineral water.

Throughout the reception, different choirs sang songs to entertain guests. Later in the day, the couple cut and served the cake to their guests.

The last item on the program was giving gifts to the couple. All those with gifts moved to the table where Valeria and her husband were standing and gave in their gifts. The couple was very happy for the gifts they got. At 9.00pm, the function ended and we went back home.

Dombolo's Spare Parts

David is a business man in Muhanga Market. He is a dealer in motor vehicle spare parts from Dubai and Japan. Spare parts are parts of a machine which are used by the mechanic to repair damaged or old ones.

David imports spare parts like engines, head lamps, gear boxes, windscreens, wind screen wipers, pistons, driving mirrors, tyres, wheels, pedals, indicators, mud guards and so on. Windscreens are blades with a rubber edge which move across a windscreen to make it clear, for example when it is raining.

In addition, he imports tools used in vehicle repair such as carjacks, files, testers, pliers, adjustable spanner, hack saws, screw drivers and pumps. A pump is a simple machine that is used to inflate a tube with gas or air pressure.

David receives customers every day. His customers come from near and far. They come to purchase spare parts for their vehicles which have broken down and to replace the old ones that are worn-out. People like David's spare parts because they are original and durable.

We have been away,
Several times searching for news,
For nobody else but,
Our clients because we are journalists by profession.

We have been abused,
Several times by the guilty victims,
For writing and publishing facts,
About corruption and individuals,
Yet we were trained to gather information.

We have been sometimes praised,
For educating the masses,
Through newspapers, radios and television,
All these are our sources of information,
How ignorant would you be if we were silent!

Fellow Ugandans,
Always respect journalists,
News editors, correspondents,
And columnists,

Indeed we bring the unknown to known.

Questions

1. Which people do you think are talking in the poem?

2. How many times have journalists been abused?

3. Who abuses the journalists?

4. For whom do the journalists gather news?
